

Constitution of the International Migrants Alliance

Preamble:

We, the mass organizations, alliances and trade unions of migrant, immigrant workers and refugees, support institutions do hereby proclaim the formation of the first International Migrant Alliance and the declaration of our Charter and the General Program of Action.

The IMA is a broad anti-imperialist alliance that will uphold and promote the rights and welfare of all migrant workers, immigrants and refugees. It will endeavor to do the following:

- a. Empower migrant workers, immigrants, and refugees, particularly women and children, through their self organization, help in their program for education, organization and mobilization, to struggle for their rights and welfare, and to challenge imperialist globalization and their “war on terror”.
- b. Full and strict implementation of UN and ILO conventions and instruments for the protection of the rights and welfare of migrant workers and their families by sending and receiving countries
- c. Full and strict implementation of conventions protecting and upholding the rights of women migrants, women immigrants, women refugees, and addressing their specific needs.
- d. Recognize and assert the rights of undocumented migrant workers, including those who have been trafficked for labor or the sex trade.
- e. Recognize and assert the rights to asylum of political refugees and the end of all forms of restriction and persecution.
- f. Oppose unjust and discriminatory state health policies as a tool to discriminate and regulate the movement of people, especially migrant workers. We demand the abolition of mandatory testing, for HIV or pregnancy for example, as a pre-employment requisite and as a term for deportation. We also demand access for migrant workers, immigrants, refugees, and homeless people to culturally appropriate health information and services.
- g. Expose and oppose militarization of borders and remove all unjust, discriminatory and violent state policies targeting im/migrants and refugees. In the same breadth, criminalization of migrants, especially undocumented under the guise of war against terrorism must be exposed and opposed.
- h. Expose and oppose labor export policies which institutionalize the commodification of labor and consequent abuse of migrant workers. As well, we demand for thorough going socio-economic reforms that will create decent jobs and promote equity.
- i. End all forms of human trafficking, including sex trafficking.
- j. The end to imperialist wars of aggression and other fascist measures including that of their client-states.

- k. Oppose systematic racism inherent in migration policies and practices.
- l. Resist military recruitment of migrants.

Article I
Aims and Purposes:

- a. Deepen the perspective and understanding through the root causes of migration, its direct consequences and other related issues and problems, and the role of imperialism and governments and international institutions in the process of labor-export and forced migration, support struggles for fundamental change and genuine development in labor exporting countries;
- b. Generate campaigns, opposition and action against human rights violations, abuses and violence committed against migrants, immigrants and refugees and to gather support for this cause;
- c. Harness and continuously strengthen international cooperation and mutual support among the migrant and immigrant organizations in sharing strategies of resistance and in searching for solutions to the worsening problem of labor-export and forced migration brought by imperialist globalization;
- d. Encourage coordination and cooperation in the national level and regional levels of im/migrants' organizations – in the form of joint activities, coalition-building or establishing coordinating bodies - to undertake campaigns for the protection of their rights and welfare and strengthening their organizational capacities;
- e. To establish support structures and networks and maximize the use of existing ones to organize and assist migrant workers, immigrants and refugees in receiving and sending countries, who are in need and who have problems; and
- f. To develop a genuine international anti-imperialist and pro-migrant advocacy network among various professionals, academicians and other citizen's groups. Support the strengthening and organizing of immigrant groups and enhance advocacy work to change policies and laws. To expose reactionary migrant groups in the service of imperialism.
